

Fall in Love with the EMERALD CITY

Is this your first time in the Pacific Northwest? Do you live somewhere close and just can't get enough of the beauty and culture? We are glad you're here.

Maybe you first heard about Seattle in that romantic comedy with Tom Hanks and Meg Ryan and you've wanted to come here ever since. Well, we're glad you made it and we're excited for you to have the chance to fall in love with our great city.

Whether you are riding the monorail, visiting the art museum, taking a ferry ride, or enjoying any of the great local eateries in Seattle, make sure you grab an umbrella. You never know when it might start raining in Seattle.

Bits You Don't Miss:

- Gas Works Park
- Hiking Mount Rainer or Mount St. Helens
- Seattle Art Museum
- The Children's Museum
- Sand Point Magnuson Park Public Art
- Pacific Science Center
- Hanging out in Fremont
- Taking a ferry ride
- Walking around Pike Place Market

Good Eats:

- Ivar's Seafood Bar
- Kells Irish Pub
- Bakery Nouveau
- Paseo
- Beecher's Handmade Cheese
- Pike Place Chowder

Welcome to Seattle

Troll Searching

There is a troll under the Aurora Bridge in the Fremont District of Seattle. The Fremont District radiates due to its strong and unique art scene.

Hop on the carousel

What is a trip to the pier without a ride on the carousel?

Coffee!!!

Coffee shops drive the people of Seattle to do their best. Chains such as Starbucks, Seattle's Best, and Tully's are native to Seattle. There are other coffee chains indigenous to Seattle such as the Cherry Street Coffee House. Even if you are in a hurry, stop by for a cup of coffee to go and if you're really Seattle-friendly, bring your own cup.

Safeco Field

Want to catch a game of America's favorite pastime? Grab a ticket to Safeco Field and watch the Mariners play ball. Eat a hotdog. Drink beer. Catch a fly. It's bound to be a great time, rain or shine.

Pike's Place Market

The famous Pike Place Fish Market is an icon of Seattle. You can find a variety of kitsch items, especially on the lower levels of the market. There are stores with Polish pottery, comic books, magic stuff, and ethnic clothing.

Ride the Duck Tour!

Tour Seattle by boat and by bus! It's the best city tour on the west coast.
